SOME MORE NAWAFIL NAMAAZ OF SHA'BAAN

Allah's Messenger says "The one who offers twelve taka'at (5 sets of 2 raka'at each) in the first night of Sha'baan, in each raka'at, after 'Al-ham-du-ham-du' recites 'Qul-hu-wal-lah' five times, then Almighty Allah will give him reward of twelve thousand years will be recorded in his name and he will become free from sins as if he was born that day."

It is recorded in 'Rauze Al-Afkaar' that Hazrat Isa (Peace be on him) passed near a mountain. He saw a big white stone. Since it was a very different kind of stone, he was looking at it with surprise. The Almighty Allah conveyed to him, "Would you like to see something more surprising that this?” Hazra Isa (Peace be on him) said, “Yes, my Lord. “The stone burst open and a man came out of it holding a green coloured stick in his hand. There was a grape-tree beside him. The man said, This is my daily food.” Hazrat Isa (Peace be on him) asked him, “Since when are you busy worshipping Allah in this stone?” He replied, “Since four hundred years.” Hazrat Isa (Peace be on him) pleaded to Allah, “I feel that you have not created anyone better than this man.”

The Almighty Allah conveyed, “That person from the people of Muhammed (Blessing of Allah and peace be on him) who offers two taka’at on the night of 15th Sha’baan will be better than the four hundred year’s worship. “Hazrat Isa (Peace be on him) said, “I wish I were among the people of Muhammed (Blessing of Allah and Peace be on him).
